SENTENCE, FINE FOR S. H. CARDINAL

GUilty TUESDAY TO GRAND JURY
WARRANT

Charles H. Cardinal, Indianapolis, was charged in a Putnam county grand jury indictment with violating the slot machine act, was sentenced to the state farm for 60 days. Judge John H. Allee in the circuit court Wednesday.

Cardinal entered a plea of not guilty to the charge Tuesday.

Cardinal's machine, confiscated by authorities at the intersection of roads 43 and 36, was in the room as evidence.

Cardinal appeared before Judge Allee shortly after 4 p. m. After entering a plea of not guilty to the indictment he was ordered held in jail Wednesday.

Cardinal represents the defendant in the case. He is a radio and amusement man, 702 East 10th street, Indianapolis. It was his machine containing cards with the name and his name on them that were placed in various parts of the county.

Cardinal is said to be a friend of Reising, local liquor store owner, who is linked with the grand jury charges of advertising lottery and exhibiting a device handed down by the state. Reising will go on trial Tuesday.

Cardinal was undecided as to whether or not to plead guilty. He said he would plead guilty to the machines but not to the local operators. The police found them in his home. However, after Judge Allee explained to him in detail the charges and the penalties, he said he would plead guilty to the machines but not to the local operators. He said he was interested in the machine act by the grand jury and was scheduled to be tried Tuesday.

Homemakers To Meet April 20

Kitchen and utility room planning will be the keynote of the open meeting for all homemakers on April 20th at the Public Service Auditorium at 1:00 p. m. Miss Ruth Hutcheson, extension specialist in Home Management, Purdue University will demonstrate and outline ideas of special interest to busy homemakers. The results of tested ideas on kitchen arrangement and utility room planning will show what can be done for convenience, comfort and attractiveness.

In order to receive the most from this meeting, each woman attending should bring a sketch of her own kitchen and workroom area. The sketch will help each one to clarify in her own mind the space she plans to use as work area, and the arrangement of that space.

HOLY THURSDAY SERVICE

The annual Holy Thursday communion service will be observed at the Christian church at 7:30 p. m. This service making one of the high points in Holy Week is anticipated by the congregation each year as one of the finest experiences of the entire church year.

LITTLEJOHN ENTERED NOT GUILTY PLEA

INDIAN MAN ARRESTED ON GRAND JURY INDICTMENT WARRANT

Walter Littlejohn of Indianapolis entered a plea of not guilty in the Putnam circuit court Tuesday afternoon to a Putnam County Grand Jury indictment charging him with false pretense. The indictment was returned by the last session of the grand jury and was included in the seven true bills listed by the jurors.

The indictment charged Littlejohn, in connection with one Walter R. Dixon, address said to be unknown, with conspiring to defraud Roy D. Smith of Putnam county of a 1949 Nash automobile, valued at $2500. The defendant was charged with showing Smith a writ, allegedly signed by Judge John H. Allee of the Putnam Circuit court authorizing Littlejohn to take the automobile. Smith, believing the action to be in good faith gave up possession of the auto and state police are still searching for it. The car was last reported in an eastern state.

Littlejohn was represented in court by Robert D. Sims, attorney, and gave bond in the sum of $3,000 and was released from custody. He was brought into court by his attorney.

The affidavit charged Littlejohn with the false pretense on January 1, 1949. His trial was fixed for June 2 at 9:30 a. m.

Hennon Rites At Roachdale

Services for J. W. Hennon, 84, architect and builder for more than 40 years, will be held from the Chastain Funeral Home in Roachdale at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial will be in the Roachdale cemetery. Rev. Malcolm Harris will have charge.

Mr. Hennon, who spent his life-time in the Roachdale community, built most of the homes there as well as the public library and school building. He also constructed the public library and school building at Waveland, and published the first newspaper in Roachdale.

Born Feb. 19, 1865, near Bedford, he was the son of Joseph J. and Sarah McKee Hennon. He married Sarah E. Redding at Roachdale in 1884. He was a member of the Presbyterian church of Roachdale.

Mrs. Sanders Dies At Co. Hospital

Mrs. Leona Humphrey Sanders, age 62 years passed away at the Putnam county hospital at 3:30 Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Sanders was born March 25, 1887 in Jefferson township, Putnam county, the daughter of James and Emily Bryant Humphrey. She had spent her entire life in that community where she was well known.

She was a member of the Walnut Chapel Friends church, the American Legion Auxiliary to Hurst-Collins Post No. 281, Cloverdale.

At the time of her death she resided at 406 S. Indiana St., Greencastle.

Survivors include: the husband, A. D. Sanders; two brothers, Chester Humphrey, of Warren Township, Virgil, of Summitville; one sister, Mrs. Viola McCamack, of Jefferson township. Her parents and one brother, Vanley and one sister, Maggie Neir, preceded her in death.

OPENS NEW INDUSTRY

Ralph T. Carrico

NEW INDUSTRY TO OPEN HERE ABOUT MAY 1

Charles A. Weaver, secretary of the Greencastle Chamber of Commerce, today announced that the Indus Corporation of Indianapolis is opening a new plant on Stilesville Road, and that production will start about May 1st.

The Greencastle plant will engage in general manufacturing but its first operations will involve metal stampings and sheet metal products. The operation of the Indianapolis plant of Indus has been devoted to the manufacture of special machinery and general machine shop work, which operations will be retained to machine and tool the products fabricated in Greencastle.

The officers of Greencastle's newest manufacturing concern are: Ralph T. Carrico, who resides on County Home road, Greencastle, John M. Smith and Harold A. Carrico of Indianapolis. Indus Corporation was founded by the Carrico brothers in 1946. The firm prospered and its expansion program prompted Mr. Smith to join the firm early this year. Ralph Carrico had wide production experience with Noblett-Sparks Industries and later was plant manager for the Vonnegut Moulder Corporation and Quality Tool and Die Company. Mr. Smith served several years as vice president in charge of all manufacturing for R. C. A., and later acted in the same capacity for the P. R. Mallory Company of Indianapolis. Harold Carrico is a licensed attorney and was engaged in legal work or several years in Indianapolis, also serving as judge advocate in the Army Air Force.

A spokesman of Indus stated that they were attracted to the facilities of Greencastle in 1948 and that their decision to open the new plant was brought about largely by the efforts and fine cooperation of Claude Webb, James Pence, Charles Weaver and the other directors and officers of the Chamber of Commerce of Greencastle.

HORACE HANNA APPOINTED AS SPECIAL JUDGE

HENDRICKS CIRCUIT COURT
JUDGE TO HEAR SUTHERLIN CASE

Judge Horace Hanna of the Hendricks circuit court was appointed special judge to hear the impeachment action against Sheriff John T. Sutherlin by Judge John H. Allee in the Putnam circuit court Wednesday.

Frank Durham, county prosecutor, objected to Sutherlin's request for a change of judge on the grounds that today was the day for the sheriff to admit or deny a grand jury accusation charging him with willful misconduct in office.

Judge Allee named Judge Sommers, Crawfordsville; Judge Santa of Rockville and Judge Hanna of Danville from which the parties could select a trial judge. B. C. Craig, representing Mr. Sutherlin struck off the name of Judge Sommers and Mr. Durham struck off Judge Banta, leaving Judge Hanna to hear the case.

It will now be up to Judge Hanna to qualify and the impeachment proceedings will then be continued at his discretion.

Frank Durham argued that he motion for a change of venue was for the purpose of delaying the case of Sheriff Sutherlin. But Mr. Craig said he was ready for trial as soon as it could be arranged and denied that there was any attempt to delay the final hearing. He cited the law whereby a similar case was heard and a change of venue from the judge was ruled proper by the Supreme Court. Mr. Durham argued that the law demanded that Sutherlin answer to the charges prior to the change of venue, but he was over-ruled. Mr. Craig in his talk said he believed the law under which the accusation was drawn is unconstitutional, but it has not been tested in court.

Tornadic Winds Kill 4; Injure 30

MANCHESTER, Ga., April 13. —(INS)—Four persons were known to be dead today and more than 30 others injured as the result of sudden tornadic winds which left large sections of west-central Georgia covered with debris.

Damage was said to be heavy in five Georgia towns. More rain and wind was predicted today for most of drenched north Georgia.

Daylight Time?

LAFAYETTE, April 13. —(UP)—Lafayette and neighboring West Lafayette today joined the growing list of Hoosier communities going on Daylight Saving Time April 24.

LEBANON, April 13.—(UP)—Members of the Lebanon city council agreed today that they could pass an ordinance for daylight saving time. They rejected a proposal by city attorney Ora Kinkaid that they recommend fast time.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, April 13. —(UP)—The city council adopted a recommendation today asking residents to go on daylight saving time from April 24 to September 25. Mayor Clark D. Jones said a recent survey indicated that 90 per cent of the residents favored the move.

Paroled Convict Named As Gunman

SHIRLEY, Ind., April 13.—(UP)—Clarence Gorman, 27, allegedly a paroled California convict, was sought today after two suspects identified him as the gunman who shot banker Fasset W. Hinshaw.

Frances Earl Hedrick, 19, and Lawrence Albert Anderson, 30, both of Indianapolis, told police that Gorman fired the shot at Hinshaw, president of the Citizens State Bank here, Monday night.

Hinshaw, 51, was shot in the doorway of his home when he answered a knock. He was in critical condition in Henry County Hospital in New Castle, and was unable to tell authorities what happened. Surgeons could not find the bullet that entered his abdomen. He was given 14 blood transfusions.

Richmond Had Hospital Fire

RICHMOND, Ind., April 13.—(UP)—Chimney sparks were blamed today for a $1,500 flash fire at Reid Memorial Hospital.

All of Richmond's fire companies were summoned yesterday by an automatic alarm system, installed only five days ago to prevent a fire such as the St. Anthony's hospital tragedy in Effingham, Ill.

Authorities said the fire started from chimney sparks in the attic of the three-story laundry and boiler building. There were no injuries.

Butler Rehired At Scottsburg

SCOTTSBURG, Ind., April 13.—(UP)—Scottsburg high school students, who went on strike when their principal was given notice of discharge, won a victory over the school board today.

The students struck last Wednesday when the board announced that a younger man would be hired to replace Principal E. B. Butler, 60, whose contract was not renewed.

The students ended the strike when the board agreed to rehire Butler if a referendum of the parents approved him. A poll of the parents showed that 92 percent wanted Butler to stay.

Boy Arsonist Takes Own Life

BEDFORD, Ind., April 13.—(UP)—The suicide of a 10-year-old boy who hanged himself in the county jail was attributed today to despondency over being sentenced to the state reform school.

Donald Harris hanged himself in his cell shortly after he was sentenced to the Indiana Boys' School for an indeterminate period by Judge Chester Davis. His body was found by the sheriff's wife, Mrs. Zebert Hawkins, when she brought him his supper.

He had looped his belt around his neck and had secured it to a cell bar.

The boy, son of a divorced Indianapolis couple and a ward of the County Welfare Department, had admitted setting two fires yesterday in a grade school because he "didn't want to go to school." He also admitted setting a house and barn on fire at Mitchell, Ind., last Saturday.

U. S. Woman Held By Czech Police

PRAGUE, April 13.—(UP)—Czech police have arrested Miss Vlasta Adele Vraz, an American citizen and head of American relief for Czechoslovakia, on grounds of possible "political activities," U. S. Embassy officials disclosed today.

They said she was arrested in her Prague office at 1 p. m. last Saturday. She told an Embassy representative who visited her in jail yesterday that she is being held for investigation of alleged political activities.

Her home is at Berwyn, Ill. Embassy officials said American relief for Czechoslovakia is sponsored by the advisory committee on voluntary foreign aid at New York City, and distributes food and clothing to Czech children.

Miss Vraz's arrest followed by less than three weeks the imprisonment for espionage of two American soldiers who wandered into Czechoslovakia while AWOL from their units in Germany.

A Czech state court on March 26 sentenced army recruit George R. Jones of Owensboro, Ky., and recruit Clarence R. Hill of Jackson, Miss., to 12 years at hard labor as spies.

FISHIN' FUN

The valleys of Big Walnut creek have all the appearance of an old-fashioned camp meeting...nowadays. Last evening, while on my usual round of inspection of the frantic antics of the locals, I was amazed to see the usually dark area of the creek ablaze with lights in several different places, as the suckers played hide and seek with the hungry hopefuls. One of the men had fallen in the chilly water, and his teeth were chattering so much he barely could tell me his name. Art Nevins. We have promised not to tell who stole a big string of suckers from the boat of two of the hopefuls. It was all a big joke, but we understand that if Maynard (Clip Joint) Johnson and O. J. (Hardwater) Stewart can get their hands on Bill Kocher there will be a head thumping.

The first grade won the attendance award.

Officers for next year were installed by Miss Meryl Michael. The new officers were: President, Mrs. Sidney Mandelblatt; vice president, Mrs. Donald Sears; secretary, Mrs. Archie Pingleton and treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Tingle.

The P. T. A. decided to restore the rope to the school bell which would be rung at the time the children are to arrive at the school.

The first grade won the attendance award.

RESUMES LAW PRACTICE

Albert E. Williams announced today that he has resumed the practice of law in Greencastle at his office on the west side of the square.

Mr. Williams, at the request of the late Rue J. Alexander, went to Indianapolis to take charge of the legal work of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles on titles. Thereafter he was placed in charge of the Title Department. While in this department of the government he revised the title procedure and wrote a manual on vehicle titles in Indiana and he is a recognized authority in the state of Indiana on vehicle titles.

Mr. Williams was admitted to the Putnam County Bar in 1936 and served as prosecuting attorney for three terms and as county attorney two years.

EXTRA!

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(INS)—The United States, Britain and France announced today that 159 basic German industrial plants originally scheduled for removal as reparations will be retained to speed European recovery.

The big three agreement was based on a report prepared for the Economic Cooperation Administration by George M. Humphrey, head of the ECA industrial advisory committee. Included were steel, metal working, chemical and non-ferrous metal plants.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(INS)—The Senate today unanimously confirmed President Truman's nomination of Stephen T. Early as under-secretary of defense.

Senate approval came less than two hours after the Armed Services Committee had unanimously recommended confirmation.

Early, former press secretary of the late President Roosevelt, appeared at the five-minute hearing and answered two questions.

CHICAGO, April 13.—(INS)—Lard-bitten Chairman Sewell Avery stood alone at the helm of Montgomery Ward and Co., today with the resignation of the rest of his vice presidents.

Willard H. Sahloff resigned today, becoming the last of 18 vice presidents to quit the nation's second largest mail order house.

Sahloff declared that the "constant turmoil" in the management group of the company made his position "entirely untenable."

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(INS)—Rep. Cannon D., Mo., declared today that the next war must be won "within three weeks" by land-based planes pulverizing every military center in Russia with the atomic bomb.

The high ranking congressman told the house that the role of the United States will be to provide airpower in any future conflict while Allies of the Atlantic pact will provide the troops.

The chairman of the House appropriations committee warned that unless this is done, Russia would overrun the European continent "in 60 days" and the war would be lost.

Jealous Husband Kills Mate, Self

AURORA, Ill., April 13.—(UP)—A jealous husband shot his beautiful brunette wife to death and killed himself last night after a mutual friend's attempt to reconcile them failed.

Sheriff's deputies said Homer Andrews, 39, killed his wife, Mary Charlotte, 29, as they sat in a parked automobile near here discussing her plans for divorce. Then he shot himself to death, deputies said.

Raymond Enright, 29, a mutual friend, had arranged the meeting between the estranged couple, but said he fled when Andrews drew a .38 caliber pistol. Enright said he heard the shots as he ran.

Deputies said Mrs. Andrews left her husband, an employee of a wall paper firm, several weeks ago because of his "extreme jealousy."

Van Zant Will Stay In Indiana

PARIS, Ill., April 13.—(UP)—Gov. Henry Schricker of Indiana has refused to return Edgar Van Zant, Paris grain dealer, to Illinois to face embezzlement charges, state's attorney E. A. Wilson said today.

Wilson said that Schricker wrote Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson that Van Zant will be tried at Newport, Ind., on two charges of embezzling the value of 1,565 bushels of soybeans.

Van Zant, 65, is wanted here for trial on three similar charges.

Van Zant, who owned and operated grain elevators in both states, was charged with grand larceny in January, and consented to be declared bankrupt. A previous civil suit against Van Zant alleged that more than $0,000 bushels of soybeans, valued at between $180.00 and $200.00, were missing from his elevators.

Schricker said that if Van Zant is convicted in Indiana, Illinois officials could issue a detainer for him at the Indiana State Prison.

DOING GOOD COSTLY
PLYMOUTH, Ind. April 13—(INS)—Even a preacher must pay to do good in Plymouth.
The Rev. Richard Blake, pastor of the Methodist church, returned from distributing window cards publicizing union Good Friday services, to find a police ticket on his automobile.

The preacher paid a $1 fine for overtime parking.

Bainbridge Economics Club Will Meet Thursday
The Bainbridge Home Economics club will meet Thursday, April 14 at the home of Mrs. Gene Gooch. There will be a seed and bulb exchange of April fool packages. Please note change of meeting place.

Federation of Clubs Meeting at Bainbridge
Thirty-three Greencastle women attended the county Federation of Clubs convention in Bainbridge Tuesday. Senator Bruce Lane in his address urged women to take more interest in politics, know what your legislature is doing, and to write to your elected legislators telling them your wishes on different bills as they are there to do as their constituents wish done. Also, he said, remember the critical time is at election time.

the U. S. but they are not ready for it. The U. S. has brought schools to Porto Rico and English is being taught in the schools instead of Spanish.
Mrs. S. A. Collier of Bainbridge was elected president of the county Federation; Miss Carrie Pierce, Greencastle, 1st vice president; Mrs. Ethel Hall, Carpentersville, 2nd vice president, and Mrs. E. E. Settle, secretary. According to the state law these officers take office July 1st. No officer holds office over two years. The 5th district president of Terre Haute outlined the policies of the Federation. The convention closed a successful administration of Mrs. Ferd Lucas, president, and her officers.
